

Messiah Lutheran Book Group

Everyone is welcome to join this monthly book discussion, whether you've read the book or not!

MLC Book Group | 2025 Reading List

Books for 2025 have been selected. Our next meeting will be January 13, 2025. In 2025, we will meet on the second Monday of every other month.

Following as a tentative schedule of books for 2025 which may be amended at our next meeting. We would like everyone's input!

- JANUARY 13 (led by Connie): Zeitoun (Dale Eggers) - The true story of an American Muslim family living through Hurricane Katrina.
- MARCH 10 (led by Larry): The Other Wes Moore (Wes Moore) - A study of two men with the same name, whose fates lead to different paths in life.
- MAY 12 (led by Illy): Flesh and Bone (Jefferson Bass) - A fictional murder mystery set in Knoxville.
- JULY 14: no selection yet
- SEPTEMBER 8 (led by Beth): A Most Tolerant Little Town (Rachel Louise Martin) - The true story of the integration of Clinton High School in 1956, and the accompanying turmoil.
- NOVEMBER 10 (led by Larry): There There (Tommy Orange) - A novel following a cast of native Americans on their way to a large powwow near Oakland, California.